

Support for affordable college high in 2025

A GBAO poll asked: Right now, there is a proposal in Harrisburg to create the Pennsylvania Promise Scholarship Program. This program would make higher education more affordable by ensuring that students from families who make less than $250,000 a year will not have to pay tuition at state colleges and universities here in Pennsylvania. Do you support or oppose this proposal to create the Pennsylvania Promise Scholarship Program?

The responses showed ...

The PA Promise has strong support.

Total percentage is greater than 100%, due to rounding.

The PA Promise has diverse support.

Percent of groups polled who support the Pennsylvania Promise:

The PA Promise has bipartisan support.

For more information about the poll and the proposed program, visit PApromise.org and follow the Pennsylvania Promise on social media.